

I have heard that the FCC is considering removing the NJ Do Not Call list. We finally have peace in our home. We can actually sit down and have a family meal, with out the phone ringing off the hook with solicitors. Please leave the law as it is. It's my home and phone and I should be allowed to go home and relax. Thank you